Note on Employment:

It is an offence for a non-citizen to undertake employment in Samoa unless their Entry Permit specifically authorises such employment.

As part of the application process, applicants for a Temporary Resident Permit for Employment purposes will be considered for permission to work. Information from this application form and the Employer Guarantee form will be forwarded to the Ministry of Commerce, Industry and Labour for their assessment.

Where a Temporary Resident Permit for Employment Purposes is granted, the holder is permitted to work for the employer nominated in the application. If this employment ceases for any reason, the Permit is subject to cancellation and the person must leave the country or apply for a new permit to remain in Samoa.

Visitors and Academic Researcher Temporary, Cultural and Religious personnel or Resident Permit holders are not permitted to work in Samoa. Students may work part time, if authorised. Dependents of permit holders may seek authority to undertake employment in Samoa during the validity period of the principal applicant's permit. Applications for permission to work may be made on this form and lodged at Immigration Division - see Section 4 for details.

Note for Investors:

Investors need to register with Ministry of Commerce, Industry and Labour and have obtained a business licence from Ministry of Revenue and registration confirmation from Ministry of Justice before applying for a Temporary Entry Permit.
